

"Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured my Wife of Fits," and you would be pleased to see the change in her. When I sent our son in Texas a picture of his mother after taking Dr. Miles' Nervine he could not believe it until I told him the second time."

Dr. Miles' Nervine

has proven of benefit to hundreds who suffered like Mrs. Hall. A remedy that produces restful sleep and steadies the nervous system is best for such nervous troubles as epilepsy, fits and St. Vitus' dance. Dr. Miles' Nervine has stood the test of 25 years' use as a remedy for nervous troubles.

Sold under a guarantee assuring the return of the price of the first bottle if it fails to benefit. At all druggists.

H. J. Dunbar went to Crab Orchard Monday to do some carpenter work on D. M. Wheeler's new residence.

R. B. Hedgecoth was in from Dorton Monday. He reports hogs dying of cholera in the woods in his neighborhood. The mast is more plentiful than has been known in many years and hogs are taking on fat very rapidly. There is danger that many hundreds of dollars will be lost through the death of hogs with cholera.

G. M. Martin & Sons drove 35 head of cattle to Grassy Cove Monday on the way to Kentucky to put them on the blue grass. The cattle were loaded at Spring City as the federal law requires that all cattle loaded for shipment from this section be inspected at the car as loaded.

A. L. Flynn and brother Philip were in town Monday on their way to Kingston to see the negro doctor, Anderson. He has greatly benefited A. L. Flynn and Mr. Flynn has strong hopes that he will fully recover if he continues to take the medicine furnished by Dr. Anderson.

Dr. V. L. Lewis and family last week had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Mary Hampton, of California, aunt of Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. J. M. Wallace and son, Master Gordon Wallace, mother and brother of Mrs. Lewis. They came Sunday and left Thursday for the home of Mrs. Wallace, near Sparta.

Last week J. C. Kemmer and son, J. A. Kemmer, of Grassy Cove, sold 99 head of cattle and loaded them at Spring City Thursday. J. A. Kemmer furnished 35 of the number and J. C. Kemmer 64 of them. The deal was worked up by J. S. Cline. The purchaser gave J. A. Kemmer a check for $5,000 before they were loaded. It is the largest single cattle sale made this year by any person who raises the stock in this section and the price is considerably better than many have received. The Kemmers are perhaps the largest stock raisers in the county and have more land under cultivation. J. A. Kemmer has 45 head of cattle remaining and J. C. Kemmer has considerably over 100.

The new residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson is expected to be completed in time for them to move in by Thanksgiving. When completed they will have a very neat and attractive home.

O. E. Stewart and Mrs. Sarah Ashley were up from Erasmus yesterday. They are conducting a store at Erasmus and are enjoying a good business. Mrs. Ashley has been postmistress at Erasmus for many years. In spite of her 76 years she is very active. She is an intelligent and kind woman and possessed of much business ability.

The new shredding and husking machine was at work at the home of Prof. Frank March Monday and its working was atched with interest by many. It shreds or tears the corn stalks into small pieces and blows them into the barn loft. At the same time it husks the corn and delivers the ears in a pile. Some corn is shattered from the cob while husking and it is carried over screens that clean it and then it runs into a bag. The machine does not work quite so rapidly as the silage cutter. O. H. Overdell brought a few bundles of soy bean hay to the machine and it shelled the beans in splendid shape and did not break them. He will have the machine moved to his farm to thresh his soy beans. He expects to have over 100 bushels.

Come to the court house Saturday night, Nov. 13 and see "The Silent System," and "A Box of Monkeys," also hear some good music. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

In this issue we are publishing a large advertisement of a clubbing proposition which should interest many Chronicle readers. It means a saving of 95 cents as against any other way you can get these publications. The most interesting feature of the deal is that each clubbing offer enables you to get the Chronicle at a price less than the regular subscription rate. Look the ad over carefully and select such combinations as you wish.
